Hangar

1. Characteristics of the tank
2. Tanks for purchase
3. Button for buying a tank

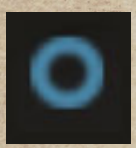

The game implemented different types of technology, which differ in performance.

«Heavy tanks» - are characterized by heavy damage, and a large reserve of armor. Suitable for playing close combat.

«Medium tanks» - have an average speed, medium armor. But they have the fastest recharge. The technique is optimal for playing at any distance.

«Light tanks» is a technique with the least margin of safety, but this is compensated by the increased speed of movement, maneuverability and quick recharging of the gun.

«KILLER» - has an average safety margin, but has increased speed and increased damage. Great for playing at long distances.

Upgrades

To become stronger, upgrade out your equipment by buying modules.

MAIN GUN – increases the damage of your tank

AUTOLOADER - reduces the speed of reloading the gun of the tank

Upgrades

ARMOR - increases the armor of tank

ENGINE - increases the speed of the tank

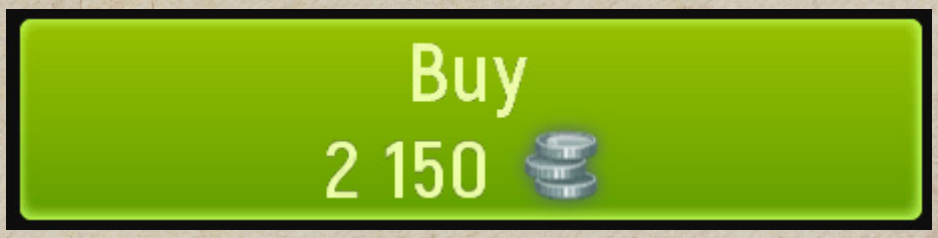

CHASSIS - bonus to the strength and speed of the tank

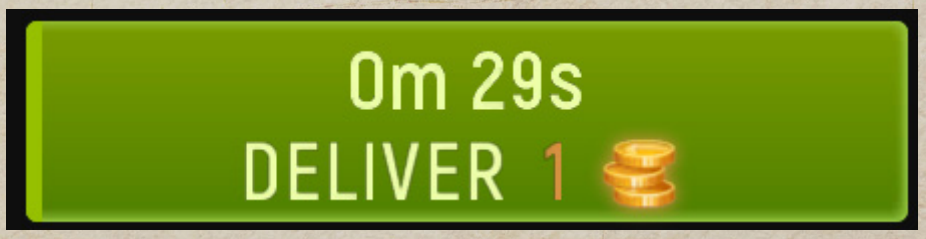

Upgrades

Each module has several levels of upgrades.

After the module is purchased, the module is delivered

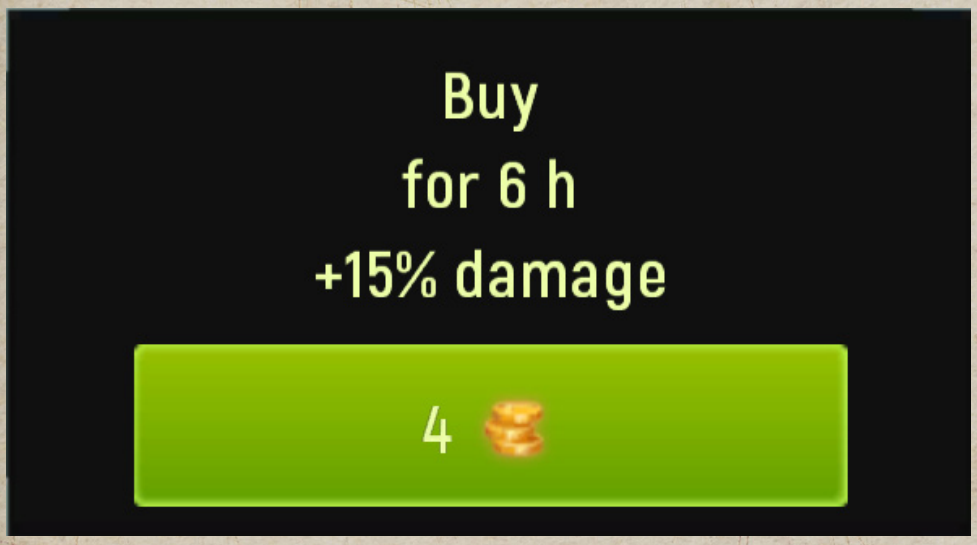

Delivery takes a certain time, the higher the level of the module, the longer the delivery time.
If you do not want to wait, you can always speed delivery.
When the module is delivered, it is automatically installed on the machine.

Camouflage and Decals

To defeat the enemy, use decals and camouflages

You will not change the appearance of the tank only, but also temporarily increase the tank characteristics.

Different stickers and camouflage give different increases to the characteristics. Combine the decals and camouflage with the tank and become unbeatable.
